The quote MUST also be for an ENGINEER CERTIFIED BUILDING with identical materials, quality and features. Most competitors don't sell engineer certified buildings, which means their buildings are NOT built with a level of quality that customers can safely rely on. PLEASE NOTE: The competitor price quote must be from a dealer with a physical location and for a building with identical materials, quality and features. MaxSteel will not price match online-only competitors. The quote must have the customer and dealer's name and address (and cannot be hand-written).
